

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON
OF INDIANA.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

A SUGGESTION

At the present time the taxpayers of Ormsby have not received a single pledge from its Legislative candidates how they propose to vote on matters concerning the welfare of Ormsby county in the next Legislature.

The three successful candidates will be practically elected before the convention meets, and if they should choose to decline to make any pledges to the convention they would still be the nominees of the convention.

It is a matter of vital concession to the taxpayers of Ormsby whether its Legislative delegation are for Ormsby or Washoe.

In times past the various public buildings which Washoe has gobbled up by lobbying schemes through the Legislature became hers by Ormsby county votes. Frank Bell, of Washoe, the Warden of the penitentiary was twice elected through Ormsby county votes in the Legislature.

After that was done Bell purchased nearly all the prison supplies of Reno merchants and worked hard to convince the people that the prison should be removed to "some place where there was water power," meaning, of course, Reno.

We want no one representing Ormsby in the next Legislature who will be everlastingly playing into the hands of Reno merchants. The APPEAL has tendered the legislative candidates the use of its columns to express themselves on the vital questions which affect the welfare of this county.

Might it not be a good idea for the citizens to call a public meeting at the Old Theater this evening that the Legislative candidates may be present and put themselves on record on the question of irrigation and the other matters which affect the future prosperity of Ormsby. It will be just as well for the taxpayers to learn these matters before the ticket is made up, as to wait until after the Legislature is called to order.

GRADY ON CLEVELAND.

Grady, the silver-tongued orator who is shouting for Cleveland in San Francisco, jumped the Democratic party four years ago and refused to stump the State of New York for Cleveland on the ground that he was a fraud, and he spoke all through the fight for Butler.

On July 9 in the St. Louis Convention he had no show to change his views and here is the report of how he stood then:

When New York was called, there was great cheering and waving of handkerchiefs, particularly by those in the galleries. Lockwood of Buffalo nominated Cleveland in a speech that was not very brilliant. Carter Harrison of Chicago and Jones of Minnesota seconded the nomination. After these had spoken, Thomas F. Grady of New York, Tammany's spokesman, amid a storm of protests, was allowed by the chair to address the convention. He said Cleveland could never get the electoral vote of New York. He did not claim that the Irish or Catholics of New York would go against Mr. Cleveland, but the anti-monopolist elements of the State, Catholic and Protestant, Irish, German and American, are opposed to his election. Mr. Cleveland had been elected in 1882 by a majority of 192,000, but the last election in that State showed a Republican majority of 13,500, making a change of 211,000 in the Democratic vote. He charged Cleveland with being the friend notoriously of the monopolists, and urged the delegates to take Thurman. He knew of but one occasion on which Mr. Cleveland had been called upon to show his hand whether he was Democratic or something else, and Mr. Cleveland proved at that time that he was something else.

THE $200 FORFEITED.

The Democrats Back Down from the $5000 Bet.

On Tuesday last Major Dennis of the U. S. Mint and Edward James of the U. S. Land office offered to bet $5000 even up that Cleveland would be elected.

Inside of twenty minutes the amount was deposited in Wells Fargo & Co., by Dr. Lee, S. C. Wright, G. C. Thaxter, and Frank McCullough.

The Democrats on being called on to cover the deposit put up $200 as forfeit and asked for 48 hours to raise the balance.

The balance was never deposited and yesterday the Democrats notified the Republicans that they could have the forfeit.

It appears that the Democrats in this city made the bet in good faith having received a dispatch from Virginia City to deposit the forfeit and that the rest of the money would be down. The County stock Democracy having heard some grape vine news from New York decided that the taking of the bet would be inexpedient and left the Carson Democrats in the lurch.

These two wings of the Bourbon party do not speak now as they pass by.

For Assemblyman.

Mr. Frank Folsom announces that he is a candidate for the Assembly. Mr. Folsom has long been identified with the interests of this city, is sound on the questions which are vital to Ormsby's interest. If elected he will make a first class representative.
